

AVCP Regional Housing Authority is inviting you to attend the 16th Annual Housing Conference at the Yupiit Piciryarait Cultural Center in Bethel, Alaska on March 27, 28, and 29, 2012. The theme of the conference is "Strategies to Diversify Housing."

AVCP RHA will cover travel and provide government rate per diem for meals and lodging expenses for one Tribal Council Member from each tribe to attend the conference. The selected member to attend the conference must be an elected Tribal Council Member and designated by tribal resolution.

The tribal council member selected to be the delegate will need to make their own airline and lodging reservations. The travel dates is Monday, March 26, 2012 and return Thursday March 29, 2012. If airline schedules cannot accommodate the travel times, please contact Catherine Cedars or Carol Hunter to make other arrangements.

Use the registration form to list the name of the selected delegate along with the travel and airline information. A travel authorization will be delivered to the airline.

We look forward to working with you at the housing conference.

If you have any questions, please contact Catherine Cedars or Carol Hunter at 1-800-478-4687.
