

AVCP REGIONAL HOUSING AUTHORITY

HOMEOWNER ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

The AVCP Regional Housing Authority (AVCP RHA) Homeowner Assistance Fund (HAF) Program provides resources to individuals or families with financial hardships associated with corona virus pandemic.

AVCP RHA HAF is for individuals or families to help mitigate financial hardships by providing funds to eligible individuals or families for the purpose of:

- Preventing homeowner:
 - Mortgage delinquencies
 - Defaults
 - Foreclosures
 - Arrearages of Qualified Expenses
 - Loss of Utilities
 - Electric
 - Gas
 - Home energy (including firewood and home heating oil)
 - Water and wastewater
- Displacement of homeowners experiencing hardship after January 21, 2020
 - Home repairs to maintain the habitability of home
 - Including a reasonable addition of habitable space to alleviate overcrowding
- Home internet service

Apply for the AVCP RHA HAF program assistance through AVCP RHA. You can also get Application for Assistance and Information packet from the Tribal office.

Learn more information on the HAF is available at: www.avcphousing.org.